

Robert Ballestros

Robert Ballestros has been with Impact since 2018 and is also the President of Simply Beyond Expectations & Graphic Unleashed. He currently coaches the 08 Premier Girls, 03 Premier Girls, and is assistant coach to the 06 National Girls team. Robert is originally from California and has previously coached in Japan, California, South Carolina, North Carolina, Florida, and Georgia.

Robert brings discipline, fitness, and enjoyment to every team he coaches and states that he has coached all over the country and what sets Impact apart from the clubs is that the club cares about the kids and their development more than anything. He believes all of his players are special and have or will grow up to become positive members in society.

A fun fact about Robert is that he was on a television show in the early 90's called Major Dad.

Coaching Licenses:
National E